BLM's Northwest Resource Advisory Council meets May 28 in Browns Park

The Bureau of Land Management's Northwest Colorado Resource Advisory Council will meet May 28 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Lodore Hall in Browns Park. Lodore Hall is approximately 50 miles west of Maybell, Colo., on Highway 318.

The meeting is open to the public, with public comment periods scheduled for 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Agenda topics include:

- 10 year review of Land Health Standards and Guides
- Discussions on air quality, socioeconomic, and wild horse resolutions
- National Oil Shale Association update on oil shale
- Briefing on new Dominguez-Escalante NCA and Wilderness
- Updates from local offices

The Northwest Colorado RAC is one of three advisory councils to BLM Colorado. RACs are composed of 15 citizens appointed by the Secretary of the Interior. Individuals serving in each RAC represent a broad range of public land interests, including environmental, local government, and commercial activity. The Northwest RAC advises the Grand Junction, White River, Little Snake, Kremmling and Glenwood Springs BLM field offices.

For more information on Colorado RACs, go to www.blm.gov/co and select Resources, then Resource Advisory Councils.
